

The 1st Czech National Congress of Vexillology

Term:	18.-19.05.1996
The Congress venue:	The East Bohemia Museum in Hradec Králové
The Hosts:	Flag Data Center by Petr Exner The Czech Vexillological Society (then Vexillological Club)
The Chief Organizer:	Petr Exner
Participants:	34 persons (20 from Czechia, 14 from abroad /Germany - 4, Slovakia – 3, Poland – 3, Austria, Slovenia, Sweden, USA – 1/)
The List of presentations:
Petr Exner:	How to organize a congress
Pavel Fojtík:	Czech vexillology in practice
Zbyšek Svoboda:	Czech municipal and communal flags
Aleš Brožek:	New communal flags of the Czech Republic
Zbyšek Svoboda:	Origins and evolution of military colours
Eva Turek:	The case of a wrong identification
Ludvík Mucha:	The Oromia flags
Vladimír Zoubek:	The State symbols and the capital of the Czech Republic
Petr Exner:	The Tibetan flag in Hradec Králové
Roman Klimeš:	From the history of irredentism on the territory of Czechoslovakia between 1918 and 1919
Jaroslav Martykán:	Reflection of the next activities of our Vexillological Club
Seminars:
Aleš Brožek:	Findings of the inquiry on the Vexilologie bulletin
Jiří Tenora:	A computer draws the flag pictures
Petr Exner:	Vexillology and Internet

The accompanying exhibition:

“The State symbols on the territory of Czechoslovakia since 1918” presented by Roman Klimeš

The proceedings of the 1st Czech National Congress of Vexillology were published in Czech by the Flag Data Centre in Hradec Králové, 1997 and they are no more available.