

The 2nd Czech National Congress of Vexillology

- Term: 08.-10.09.2000
- The Congress venue: The rector's office and campus of the J.E. Purkyně University in Ústí nad Labem
- The Hosts: The Czech Vexillological Society (then Vexillological Club)
The Municipal Museum of Ústí nad Labem
- The Chief Organizer: Aleš Brožek
- Participants: 42 persons (18 from Czechia and 24 from abroad /Germany – 20, Slovakia – 2, Poland and Sweden - 1/)
- The List of presentations:
- Aleš Brožek: Symbols of the political parties in Czechoslovakia from 1992
- Petr Exner: Ten years of communal vexillology and heraldry in the Czech Republic
- Pavel Fojtík: The issues of the Prague municipal units' flags
- Karel Černý: The recommended procedure and some other findings when the communal flags have been designed
- Pavel Fojtík: The vexillological terminology in practice
- Eva Turek: "Trofékammaren" – the trophies exhibition of the Armémuseum in Stockholm
- Jaroslav Martykán: Typology of the Turkish flag finials from the Topkapi Sultan Palace's collections
- Ludvík Mucha: The municipal and communal flags in the former judicial district of Ivančice
- Jiří Tenora: New edition of the French military naval album of flags
- Within the Czech-German meeting:
- Erwin Günther: Wappen und Flaggen der Kreise und Kreisstädte in Pommern
- Gunnar Staack: Beispiel einer Flaggendatenbank
- Roman Klimeš: Die Symbole der schlesischen Fürstentümer auf dem großen Staatswappen der Tschechoslowakischen Republik aus dem Jahre 1920
- Zbyšek Svoboda: Tschechoslowakische Militärfahnen im zweiten Weltkrieg
- The accompanying exhibition:
"The well-known and unknown vexillology"
presented by Aleš Brožek

The proceedings of the 2nd Czech National Congress of Vexillology (130 pages illustrated in black-and-white, 8 colour plates) were published in Czech with German summaries by the Flag Data Centre in Hradec Králové, 2001 and they are still available for those interested.