

The 3rd Czech National Congress of Vexillology

Term:	10.-12.09.2004
The Congress venue:	The Charles University Medical Faculty campus in Plzeň
The Hosts:	The Czech Vexillological Society (then Vexillological Club) The Education and Research Library of Pilsener Region
The Chief Organizer:	Karel Černý
Participants:	32 persons (20 from Czechia and 12 from abroad /Germany – 5, Poland – 2, Belgium, Canada, Russia, Slovakia, Ukraine – 1)
The List of presentations:
Pavel Fojtík:	The differences in the flag etiquette
Aleš Brožek:	The political parties' symbols in the Czech Republic after 1992
Jaroslav Martykán:	The secessionist flags in Indonesia
Petr Exner:	Non-realized proposals for regional symbols in the Czech Republic
Roman Klimeš:	Symbols of the Tangiers international zone, 1912-1956
Viktor Lomantsov:	The emirate of the North Caucasus (1919)
Andriy Grechylo:	New arms and flags of the administrative units of Ukraine
Viktor Lomantsov:	General rules on the creation of municipal flags in Russia
Jiří Tenora:	Flags as objects of inspiration to painters and graphic artists
Kevin Harrington:	Flags in the Russo-Japanese war one hundred years ago
Pavel Fojtík:	Logomania threatens vexillology
Petr Exner:	The Czech communal flags data bank available on Internet
Kateřina Kopecká:	The symbols of the Woodcraft League

The accompanying exhibition:

“Flag – Banner – Our Symbol” presented by Aleš Brožek and Ivana Horáková

The proceedings of the 3rd Czech National Congress of Vexillology (114 pages illustrated in black-and-white, 8 colour plates) were published in Czech with English summaries and foreword by the Flag Data Centre in Hradec Králové, 2005 and they are still available for those interested.