

The 5th Czech National Congress of Vexillology

Term:	22.-24.06.2012
The Congress venue:	The North Bohemian Museum in Liberec
The Hosts:	The Czech Vexillological Society Libea Co. Inc. The North Bohemian Museum in Liberec The Technical High School in Liberec
Under auspice of:	the chairman of the Liberec Regional Authority
Chief Organizer:	Jan Vereščák, Libea Co. Inc.
Participants:	33 persons (22 from Czechia and 11 from abroad /Germany – 4, Slovakia – 4, Russia – 2, Poland – 1/)
The List of presentations:
Lubor Lacina:	Flags and banners in the collection of the North Bohemian Museum
Petr Exner:	The granting of communal arms and flags in the Czech Republic between 1991 and 2011
Petr Holas:	Flags and international relations
Zbyšek Svoboda:	The origin of the Czech vexillological terminology
Aleš Brožek:	The flags of soccer clubs in Bohemia before 191
Iva Macková:	Storage, conservation and renovation of flags
Jiří Křížek:	Flag parade on the entrance hall of the Liberec fair in 1946
Ladislav Hnát:	Colours and emblems of Czechoslovak political parties from 1938 until 1988
Pavel Fojtík:	Flag of the Prague Public Transport Company
Roman Klimeš:	Symbols of Central Lithuania 1920-1922
Alfred Znamierowski:	Typology of the territorial self-government's flags in Poland
Vladimír Liščák:	Taiwan – the symbols of administrative units after 2010
Martin Myšička:	Banners of guilds of the town of Most and their symbolism
Viktor Lomantsov:	The arms and flag of the town of Buzuluk (Russia)
Aleš Brožek:	Father and son Trenkwalds – the biggest flagmakers in Bohemia of the 19 th century
Pavel Fojtík:	Display of the flags during the state mourning period and funeral ceremonies
The accompanying exhibition:	“Flags and banners in the collection of the North Bohemian Museum” presented by Lubor Lacina

The proceedings of the 5th Czech National Congress of Vexillology (200 pages illustrated in colour) were published in Czech with English summaries and foreword by the Flag Data Centre in Hradec Králové, 2012 and they are still available for those interested.